

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our quality time at home with our family. Before we would receive up 20 to 30 calls per week especially at suppertime. This was reduced to almost nothing in no time, what a pleasure to eat in peace.